

SAVE THESE DATES!

KIDS, BOOKS & ANTI-RACISM SERIES

CLOSING THE OPPORTUNITY GAP: PROMOTING ACCESS & EQUITY THROUGH LITERACY

March 18, 2022

CHRIS HASS

May 6, 2022

GHOLDY MUHAMMAD

July 18-21, 2022

LIZ KLEINROCK

ABOUT THE SERIES

Deepen your understanding of how to cultivate anti-bias and anti-racist practices in classrooms and schools. Learn how to facilitate rich, inclusive discussions with your students to honor their lived experiences and ensure each child grows up literate in our educational system.

These nationally known speakers will challenge your thinking, inspire you and your students to take action, and equip you with the literature, language, and tools so you can make a difference in your school, community, and the world.

AUDIENCE

- Classroom Teachers, Interventionists & Specialists
- Literacy Coaches & Teacher Leaders
- District & School Leaders
- Paraprofessionals

WHERE & WHEN

In-Person at Lesley University (Limited Seating) or Virtual

DATES

March 18, 2022 with Chris Hass
May 6, 2022 with Gholdy Muhammad
July 18-21, 2022 with Liz Kleinrock

COST

$1095 to register for the complete series or register for individual events:

- 1-day live & on-demand with Chris Hass ($175)
- 1-day live with Gholdy Muhammad ($175)
- 4-day live Summer Literacy Institute with Liz Kleinrock & CRRLC Literacy Trainers ($895)

REGISTER

CRRLC.LESLEY.EDU/ANTI-RACISM-2022

Lesley
UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR READING RECOVERY
& LITERACY COLLABORATIVE